The Isle of Lewis is the largest of the Outer Hebridean islands, where ancient landscapes, Gaelic culture and the wild Atlantic shape island life. From sweeping beaches and flower rich machair to peatlands and crofting communities, Lewis combines wilderness, heritage and warm island character.

Stornoway, the lively capital, is the perfect place to begin. Overlooking the harbour, Lews Castle and Museum nan Eilean reveal the islands' rich history, from its prehistoric past to the communities that have shaped Lewis today. An Lanntair Arts Centre, located in the town centre, hosts exhibitions, music, film and cultural events, while independent cafés, restaurants and craft shops showcase local creativity and produce. Take time to wander around the harbour and town, soaking up the local atmosphere and discovering the island's rich Gaelic culture and traditions.

Head west to Uig, where golden beaches, turquoise waters and rugged coastal landscapes stretch along the coast. The area is well known as the place where the Lewis Chessmen were discovered, one of the most celebrated archaeological finds associated with the Hebrides. Nearby Dalmore and Dalbeg offer beautiful beaches, while the machair comes alive with wildflowers in summer, creating a colourful landscape between the dunes and crofts.

Along the way, discover thousands of years of history at the Callanish Standing Stones. These mysterious stones have stood for around 5,000 years and remain one of the island's most memorable sights. Nearby, the Carloway Broch offers a fascinating glimpse into Iron Age life, while Gearrannan Blackhouse Village gives an insight into how island communities once lived and worked.

Further north, the Butt of Lewis marks the island's edge, with towering cliffs, crashing seas and the iconic lighthouse. In Ness, the northernmost village of Lewis, Comunn Eachdraidh Nis offers an insight into local heritage through archives, photographs, stories and exhibitions.

Local seafood, shellfish, island-raised meat and homemade baking offer another taste of the island. Menus across the island offer an opportunity to enjoy the flavours of the surrounding waters and land with a distinct Hebridean character.

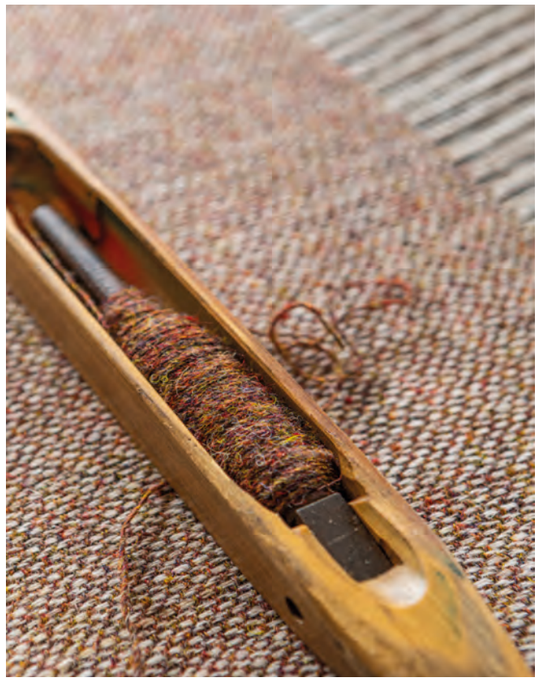

Take time to explore Lewis at it's own pace, walk along an empty beach, follow a coastal road, pause among ancient stones or chat with the locals about the places and traditions that make the island special.

Your holiday price

When you make your booking, you must pay a deposit of £75.00 per person. The balance of the holiday price must be paid at least eight weeks before your holiday departure date. If the full balance is not paid on time, we reserve the right to cancel your holiday arrangements and refund to you any balance left after settling any cancellation charges. The price of your travel arrangements may require to be varied due to changes in transportation costs, such as fuel surcharges or airport taxes, changes in VAT etc. If any surcharge totals over 10% of your agreed holiday price, you shall be entitled to cancel the holiday and receive full refund of all monies paid.

If you change your booking

If, after your holiday confirmation has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes, but it may not always be possible. Any request for change should be made to us in writing by the person who made the original booking. Whilst we will be happy to make any changes to your itinerary, there can be cost implications in changing arrangements. We shall advise you of any charges should this situation arise.

If you cancel your holiday

You may cancel your holiday at any time. If you wish to cancel your holiday booking, please arrange for us to be notified in writing, by letter or email, by the person who made the original booking. We recommend that you take out insurance against our cancellation charges, which are: If you cancel your holiday -
Between confirmation of booking and 49 days prior to holiday departure date – loss of holiday deposit of £75 per person.
Between 48-35 days before holiday departure date-loss of 50% of the full holiday cost.
Between 34-21 days before holiday departure date-loss of 60% of the full holiday cost.
Between 20-14 days before holiday departure date-loss of 75% of the full holiday cost.
Under 14 days before holiday departure date-loss of the full 100% of the holiday cost.

If we change your holiday

Prior to your holiday departure date, if it is necessary for us to change your holiday arrangements, we reserve the right to do so. In the unlikely event of this happening, we shall contact you as soon as possible with details of any changes. If we need to make a major change to your holiday, you shall have the choice of accepting the change or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. Timings of air and ferry schedules can be subject to change because of timetable changes, weather conditions or technical problems. Hebridean Hopscotch Holidays shall not be liable for any loss arising out of delays on or cancellation of scheduled timings of flights, ferry sailings, or any other modes of transportation. We strongly recommend that you take out travel insurance to cover such risks.

Force majeure

This means we shall not be liable for any loss, inconvenience, expense or injury if you have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of unusual or unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control. These can include, for example, war, riot, industrial dispute, natural disaster, fire or changes in or cancellations of travel arrangements due to travel operator technical problems or adverse weather conditions.

If you have a complaint

All descriptions of accommodation and travel services are published in good faith and are accurate at time of brochure publication. If you have any complaint or criticism of any aspect of your accommodation during your holiday, please take it up immediately with the accommodation management or owner. Likewise, if you are dissatisfied with any aspect of the service provided by the travel operators, please advise the appropriate member of supervisory staff. We too would appreciate knowing the detail of any such occurrence, together with your view as to whether the problem was remedied to your full satisfaction. If you still feel dissatisfied we shall make all reasonable endeavours to investigate your complaint and report back to you with our findings. We may, at that stage, offer you a sum of compensation that, at our sole discretion, we feel to be reasonable under the circumstances.

How to make your booking

1. We are happy to discuss our many itinerary and accommodation options with you and provide an immediate quote for your holiday. If you prefer you can email us with your holiday ideas, or go to our website www.hebrideanhopscotch.com and complete our web planner, where you can click the things that interest you most about the Hebrides and the essentials for your holiday. We aim to provide a suggested holiday itinerary plus our quotation within one working day of receiving your request, then, if you wish, a quick telephone call to discuss and amend any of the arrangements we are proposing, and it's all done.
2. If you accept our quotation, as soon as we receive your acceptance, we shall make all the travel and accommodation arrangements, subject to availability, then email you our Letter of Booking Confirmation and our Confirmation Invoice, billing you a deposit of £75 per person and specifying the details of your booking, the agreed holiday price. If flights are included in your holiday, an ATOL Certificate will be supplied to you once you pay your deposit invoice. If any of the selected accommodation is not available we shall propose the best available alternative.
3. Nine weeks prior to your holiday start date; we will email you our Sales Invoice for the agreed holiday sum, less the deposit paid. This invoice will be payable within seven days, either by bank transfer, debit or credit card, thereby allowing us eight weeks to process your ferry tickets, itinerary etc. and to email all relevant documentation to you.

Book early – and avoid disappointment

Hotel, ferry and flight availability is limited, particularly during the summer months. We strongly recommend that you book as early as possible to give us the best chance of booking the most suitable ferry sailing times and your preferred accommodation.

Late booking – No problem (Subject to availability)

We can usually arrange a holiday with as little as 3 days notice, subject to availability. Just telephone our bookings hotline to arrange your Hebridean adventure. Bookings made within eight weeks of your holiday start date must be accompanied by payment in full by debit or credit card.

Special reductions for children (sharing a room with 2 adults)

Accommodation: Children under 2 – pay only for meals as taken by arrangement with individual hotels. Discounts are available for children under 12 – please ask for a quotation.
